

Bio:

Nicole Hosey, Esq., is a dedicated attorney in the pursuit of justice and excellence in the legal profession. After earning her Juris Doctor from Florida A&M College of Law in 2018, Nicole was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2019, marking the beginning of her impactful legal career.

With a passion for the intricacies of law and drive to make a difference, Nicole began her journey as a criminal prosecutor, where she honed her skills and served the community for over four years. During her tenure in criminal law, she demonstrated an unwavering commitment to upholding the principles of justice and ensuring the rights of all individuals.

In 2023, Nicole transitioned into the realm of civil litigation joining the esteemed firm of Johnson & Montas. Drawing upon her experience as a prosecutor, she seamlessly transitioned into her new role, bringing a unique perspective and a wealth of courtroom experience to her practice. As a civil litigator, Nicole is dedicated to advocating for her clients' interests with integrity, diligence, and a steadfast commitment to achieving favorable outcomes.

Nicole's approach to legal practice is characterized by her tireless work ethic, attention to detail, and unwavering dedication to serving the needs of her clients. Whether in the courtroom or at the negotiation table, she leverages her expertise and legal judgement to craft strategic solutions tailored to each client's unique circumstances.

Beyond the courtroom, Nicole is just as committed to her husband and three children. She enjoys spending as much time with her family as possible.

Nicole is an active member of the Brevard County Bar Association and the YoungLawyers Division. She is also licensed to practice law in the District of Columbia.

Why I want to serve as a Board Member:

My personal investment in the organization stems from wanting to ensure that my son and daughter, along with all the other young athletes, have the most enriching and rewarding experience possible within their competitive soccer teams. I believe that by serving on the board, I can contribute to shaping the strategic direction and policies that will enhance the quality of coaching, facilities, and overall programming. This, in turn, will directly impact the development and growth of each child, not just athletes but as individuals, fostering valuable life skills such as teamwork, discipline, and resilience.

Ultimately, my desire to serve on the board stems from a genuine passion for the well-being and success of not only my own children but all the young athletes who has a passion for soccer. I am committed to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment where every child can thrive and pursue their passion for the game.